

A FULL-BODIED VINTAGE

Marilyn Monroe Comes Back From the Dead – in Wine Form!

In the second-greatest feat of transubstantiation ever, Marilyn Monroe, iconic star of Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and Some Like it Hot has been transformed into a delectable blend of Napa cabernet sauvignon and merlot. The Velvet Collection 2003 from Marilyn Wines boasts a label that re-creates the famous, plush-red photo that graced the cover of the very first issue of Playboy. Even better, the metamorphosis doesn't end there. While the bottle arrives with a demure wrap covering Ms. Monroe's most salacious bits, the wrap can be removed for a spirited session of peel 'n' leer.

Individually numbered, the Velvet Collection is available as a 1.5-liter bottle that comes in a sealed gift box for $225, or in a three-bottle (750ml, 1.5 liters and 3 liters), wooden-boxed set for $1,000. Visit www.marilynmerlot.com for more information.

